the yacoubian building holds all that egypt was and has become over the 75 years since its namesake was built on one of downtown cairo s main boulevards from the pious son of the building s doorkeeper and the raucous impoverished squatters on its roof via the tattered aristocrat and the gay intellectual in its apartments to the ruthless businessman whose stores occupy its ground floor each sharply etched character embodies a facet of modern egypt where political corruption ill gotten wealth and religious hypocrisy are natural allies where the arrogance and defensiveness of the powerful find expression in the exploitation of the weak where youthful idealism can turn quickly to extremism and where an older less violent vision of society may yet prevail alaa al aswany s novel caused an unprecedented stir when it was first published in 2002 and has remained the world s best selling novel in the arabic language since artfully combining social and literary history this unique study explores the dual loyalties of contemporary egyptian authors from the 1952 revolution to the present day egypt s writers have long had an elevated idea of their social mission considering themselves the conscience of the nation at the same time modern egyptian writers work under the liberal conception of the writer borrowed from the european model as a result each egyptian writer treads the tightrope between authority and freedom social commitment and artistic license loyalty to the state and to personal expression in an ongoing quest for an elusive literary ideal with these fundamentals in mind conscience of the nation examines egyptian literary production over the past fifty years surveying works by established writers as well as those of dozens of other authors who are celebrated in egypt but whose writings are largely unknown to the foreign reader novelists and poets scriptwriters and playwrights critics and journalists all have battled with and tried to resolve the tensions inherent in the conflicting forces of self and society a look at some of the raging debates in the arts in egypt that africa is at a crossroads in an increasingly globalised world is indisputable equally unassailable is the fact that the humanities as a broad field of intellect research and learning in africa appears to have been pigeonholed in debates of relevance in the development aspirations of many african nations historical experiences and contemporary research outputs indicate however that the humanities in its various shades is critical to africa s capacity to respond effectively to such problems as security corruption political ineptitude poverty superstition and hiv aids among many other mounting challenges which confront the people of africa the vibrancy and resilience of africa s cultures against these and other odds of globalisation episodes in the course of our history demand the focused attention of academia to exploit their relevance to contemporary issues this collection provides a comprehensive overview of issues in the humanities at the turn of the 21st century which create a veritable platform for the global redefinition and understanding of africa s rich cultures and traditions such areas covered include ruminations in metaphysics and psychology pathos and ethos cinematic and literary connections and historical conceptualisations
